"SO THEY SAID"

FORTY YEARS ago this district was for buffalos and Indians.

THIRTY YEARS ago beef cattle were a possibility.

TWENTY YEARS ago the milk cow was still a bountiful venture.

TEN YEARS ago wheat was a failure.

FIVE YEARS ago corn would never ripen.

NOW they talk of watermelons.

SOON it will be bananas.

The Rosebud Flour Mills have worked steadily for the wheat proposition and the testimonies favorable to the products of the wheat will soon appear.

Second Meeting of D. C. B. of T.

BETTER ROADS, AUTO CAMP GROUNDS, LIQUOR VENDOR'S STORE, RURAL MAIL ROUTES AND OTHER MATTERS TAKEN UP.

The second meeting of the new Community Board of Trade was held at the school on Friday night last. There was not as many members present as at the first meeting partly owing to the short time in which notice of the meeting was given and also to the very inclement weather which prevailed. About twenty-five members were present President C. H. Adshead was in the chair.

Secretary A. C. Fisher read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted as read.

The question of whether it was necessary to secure a charter for the organization and also the advisability of drawing up bylaws for the Community Board of Trade was discussed and on motion it was decided that the President and Secretary should be a committee to act on the matter of a Charter and after their report was brought in the bylaws could be formed.

Two rural routes were applied for some months ago by residents of the rural part of the district but so far no action had been taken by the Dominion post office department.

On motion Mr. A. F. Brusso was appointed to a committee to look into the matter and to report at the next meeting.

The condition of the roads leading into Didsbury was also lengthily discussed, the section running south from Didsbury to Caretairs being especially mentioned. On motion it was decided to get into touch immediately with the provincial department of public works in these matters to see what could be done.

In regard to the placing of a Liquor Vendor's store in Didsbury the petitions which were signed by over two hundred people. A discussion took place over the matter and it was emphatically stated that the store was not required unless one was to be placed between Red Deer and Calgary. It was also reported that both Caretairs and Olds had taken action along this line.

The town Council will be approached by Secretary Fisher on behalf of the Board in reference to being allowed to make the town park an automobile camp site. It was felt that some place should be provided for this purpose and that as there was already water in the park a very little more work would make this beautiful spot an ideal place for the purpose. It would be good advertising to tourists going through who often enquired for such a place in Didsbury. This follows out the modern idea of providing such places in towns and cities of importance throughout the country.

A discussion arose as to the advisability of appointing a regular meeting night for the Board so that everybody would know when to attend but this matter was left in abeyance until such times as the bylaws were drawn up.

The next meeting will be held at the schoolhouse on Friday night, April 11th. It is hoped that everybody who has the welfare of the district at heart will attend this meeting. All are welcome.

Last Honors Paid to Late Mrs. H. W. Chambers

As announced in last week's issue of the Pioneer the sudden death of Mrs. H. W. Chambers, wife of Mayor Chambers, occurred on Tuesday afternoon, March 25th, at her residence in Didsbury, the cause of death being heart disease.

The funeral services were held at the home on Thursday a very large number of people attending in spite of the cold stormy weather. Rev. McNutt, assisted by Rev. Bender, conducted the services while Mr. Walter Durger had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. G. Liesemer, A. G. Studer, Norman Clarke, Fred Moyle and H. E. Ormond. There was an immense number of beautiful wreaths and sprays sent by friends and organizations of which Mrs. Chambers had been a member.

She leaves besides her husband two daughters to mourn her loss, Mrs. Tortorelli, of Natal, B. C. (nee Marie Chambers), and Edythe at home. Three sisters and two brothers who live in the U. S. survive her.

Mrs. Chambers came here with her family about eighteen years ago, both Mayor Chambers and Mrs. Chambers being natives of Guelph Ont., and it was not long before she became actively identified with the ladies of the town and district in everything that was for the good and welfare of the whole community. For some years she was Secretary of the Didsbury Women's Institute, an active officer of the Red Cross Society, Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, Chatper of the O. E. S., the W. C. T. U., and other organizations. Her sympathy and assistance in any worthy object could always be depended upon, in fact in a great many instances she was the moving spirit. While she had been unable to take any active part in public affairs for about eighteen months her sympathy and advice has been of great help to many even during that time of trial and sickness.

The whole district sympathizes with Mayor Chambers and his little family in their loss of a loving wife and mother and the community also realizes that it has lost a valued member whose presence will be greatly missed but whose spirit will help to carry on because of the example she set.

Banking Problems In Canada

In the course of the address delivered by him in Winnipeg some weeks ago, and in which he discussed outstanding problems of the West, including farm labor, grain markets and marketing, transportation, export cattle trade, immigration, Sir Clifford Sifton paid his respects to bankers and the Canadian banking system, and suggested what in his opinion was necessary to restore public confidence in the banks and enable those institutions to function more efficiently in times of stress and emergency.

There can be no question that what has been termed the "wrecking of the Merchants Bank" and the failure of the Home Bank, coupled with recent amalgamations of other banks, has shaken confidence in the Canadian banking system which for many years has been held up as one of the model systems of the world. Therefore, constructive criticism and suggestions are to be welcomed.

One of the criticisms most frequently heard in the West in years past was that while the Canadian banking system might be all right from the standpoint of large financial institutions such as Bond houses, insurance companies, mortgage, loan and trust companies, and also from the standpoint of manufacturing industries and large commercial and transportation enterprises, it fell far short of meeting the needs of agriculture and the primary producers of the Dominion. It was this popular feeling which ultimately demanded and forced Provincial Governments in the West to embark upon long term credit schemes and farm loan boards.

Prefacing his remarks with the statement that he was not hostile to the banking interests, Sir Clifford Sifton declared that it had been conclusively demonstrated that the Canadian banking system, great and successful as it is does not at present furnish adequate security. This was the great drawback—lack of security! Lack of security for the shareholder, lack of security for the depositor, lack of security in the carrying on of his business for the farmer and the small business man.

Describing the situation, Sir Clifford said: "When times are good the banks get too liberal with their money; and when times begin to tighten up, the banks get frightened and call their money in, and good, honest business men cannot get the required credit. There is no necessity for the present situation to go on. It is sheer stupidity. It could be rectified at once if we would take the proper measures."

What are the proper measures? Sir Clifford found the answer in the experience of the United States, and in the creation in that country of the Federal Reserve Bank. Prior to the creation of that great institution—one of the most wonderful and successful of its kind in existence—the United States suffered the same disabilities as now exist in Canada only in an aggravated form because the Canadian branch banking system contains elements of strength and flexibility lacking in the United States system.

Outlining his proposed remedy, Sir Clifford said that what Canada required was the appointment of a competent body of men, a small central board of mature men, three, four, or half a dozen experienced and successful bankers and financial men, the same kind of men who have been appointed as directors of the Federal Reserve Bank in the United States, who will say, when the bankers are getting too liberal, "Slow up"; and when money begins to get tight, "Loosen up."

Such a board should act as a bank of rediscount, Dominion notes being issued by the Finance Department upon their requisition, it being the privilege and duty of all banks to go to this central board for re-discount whenever the business of the country required it. In other words, that it should be indicated to the banks that they are not to pursue a policy of panic because they fear a lack of currency, but to rely on means provided by Parliament for their relief.

The United States, with all its wealth, would, said Sir Clifford, undoubtedly have had a fearful financial crash after the war had it not been for the Federal Reserve Bank—a system which provides a safety valve, a ready and sufficient supply of currency in emergencies, and the effect of which is practically to guarantee that no bank in the United States, which is in a solvent condition, need fail for lack of currency. It, therefore, becomes unnecessary for them to contract their loans and conserve their resources to meet emergencies.

Such a control board as proposed would have its own small staff of auditors, which would be a deterrent on any bank manager going into an unsound transaction. It would not be necessary to inspect all branches of a Bank, only the head offices and the larger branches, the law compelling each Bank's own inspectors to make a special return to this central board of all loans in branch banks over a certain amount, whereupon a special audit would be made where any large loans might be regarded as a source of danger.

This central board would likewise survey the whole field in Canada and recommend means of supplying any legitimate demands for credit what were not being supplied with. In this way it could be of great help to the farmers of the West, just as in the United States provision was made for lending some hundreds of millions to farmers.

The people of Canada have long been discussing these problems, and apart from whether Sir Clifford Sifton's solution is the right one or not, it is time some decisive measures were taken.

Would Amend Elections Act

Urge Appointment of Permanent Returning Officers in Canada

The appointment of permanent returning officers to simplify the work of organization at election time is recommended by the chief electoral officer for Canada in his report to parliament. An amendment to the Elections Act is suggested empowering the naming by the government, either of an individual or a public officer, such as the sheriff by virtue of his position, to act at all times as returning officer in his county. The report remarks that the time required for preparation for an election in Canada is very much longer than the period consumed in Great Britain, where the system of permanent returning officers is in vogue.

The chief electoral officer also recommends that urban registration for electoral purposes should not be required, except in certain communities where the population of an electoral district is less than 5,000. At present urban registration is required of all communities over 2,500. Exception would have to be made in the case of a few small communities, which are essentially urban, but the majority of them could be registered as rural communities and effect economy in registration. The increased population limit, says the report, would reduce the number of communities now requiring urban registration from 385 to 80.

White Kitchens

Becoming Increasingly Popular Among the Younger Housewives

White is everywhere a symbol of cleanliness. Of course, it is really no "cleaner" than any other color; a gray enameled ware pot, for instance, has all the advantages of cleanliness that a white has, for all enameled ware is easy to keep clean and will not discolor. But the least speck of dirt shows on white, where it might remain unnoticed on some darker shade.

For this reason the fashion of white in the kitchen where cleanliness is of paramount importance, is growing all the time. The "white kitchen" has white enameled table, white chairs, white kitchen cabinet—even a white range—and, of course, it has white enameled ware utensils.

It is becoming increasingly popular, particularly among the younger housewives, to have a definite color scheme for a kitchen. Some prefer all white while others find that white blends very well with the gray, blue and other shades in which enameled ware comes.

Why suffer from corns when they can be painlessly rooted out by using Holloway's Corn Remover.

CIVILIANS MAY TAKE CONTROL IN GERMANY

Paris.—The demilitarization of the allied military control mission in Germany was practically decided upon by the allied council of ambassadors at a session attended by Marshal Foch.

The ambassadors received a favorable opinion from the inter-allied military committee to the suggestion made by Premier MacDonald of Great Britain that the present military mission be succeeded by the allied commission on guarantees.

Considerable significance is attached to this decision apart from its bearing upon the relations between the allies and Germany. It is the first suggestion of the new British Labor cabinet to be accepted and acted upon by an allied body.

The decision means that the control of Germany's military preparations will be exercised by civilians instead of by army officers, although the intention is not by any means to relinquish the control.

The transfer of the military control into civilian hands, it is explained, will be conditional upon assurances from the control commission, after investigation, that Germany has not made any unsanctioned military preparations during the year the control system has been in operation, and upon Germany's compliance with the five demands made by the council of ambassadors in 1922 regarding new legislation and the demilitarization of the German police.

BRANCH LINES QUESTION AGAIN A LIVE TOPIC

Ottawa.—Whether the west will have the branch lines of the Canadian National Railway to which it is entitled, and for which it is clamoring, is becoming early in the session a contentious question, regardless of the fact that the government measure has not yet been brought down.

It is the intention to bring it in, and to follow the lines of a three-year programme. Likewise, it is the apparent intention of the Tory majority in the Senate to kill it, and remarks of A. J. Lewis, Progressive member for Swift Current, in the House, are being seized upon as reasons why the bill should be defeated. Lewis favored annual estimates from year to year in place of one programme covering three years, and criticized the government policy. The same argument was put up by opponents of the bill in the Upper House.

Senator Robertson seized upon and endorsed the Lewis argument. The reason behind the three-year programme is that it is the only way that progress can be made. The minister of railways estimates that if there are to be annual estimates, piece meal, it will take 10 years to complete the job, whereas three would otherwise suffice. With the money voted annually by parliament, it would not be available until July. After that, contracts and arrangements would have to be made to carry on the work, while difficulty is foreseen in obtaining the necessary labor. It would be interrupted by the harvest, and, by the time it was over, by the frost. On the other hand, the three-year programme practically would ensure one job, for which all contracts could be concluded and labor secured at one time.

The lines would be completed in a minimum of time. Between the two plans, the weight of argument is considered to be wholly on the side of the three-year one, but there is some suggestion of adopting the latter, but only in separating the lines instead of bulking all in one bill.

Pain In His Side Is Now All Gone

Mr. John F. Pain tells of relief from suffering and gladly advises others to try Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Minett, Ont.—(Special).—Mr. John F. Pain, a well-known resident here is very satisfied with Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been getting very low and feeling hardly able to do any work, with pains in my side," Mr. Pain states. "I got hold of one of your Almanacs and read it, then sent for six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. After taking three boxes my pain left me and I can now do a lot of work. I always keep some of your pills on hand."

Mr. Pain's troubles came from the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. They put them in shape to strain the uric acid out of the blood. Without uric acid in the blood there can be no rheumatism or sciatica.

Baron Byng of Vimy Will Be a Scout Always

Ottawa.—"I expect to be a Scout till the end—morally, physically and spiritually," were the words of His Excellency Baron Byng of Vimy, Chief Scout for Canada, who was formally invested as Scoutmaster of the First (Canada) Gilwell Troop at Government House. Associated in the impressive ceremony were the chief scout commissioner and the Dominion camp chief. Lord Byng was not called upon to make the Scout promise, having been a Scout practically from the inception of the movement by Lieut.-Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powell.

Grading With Protein Tests

To Prevent Contamination of Canadian Grain Passing Through U.S. Markets

Winnipeg.—Changes in the marketing systems incidental to supplementing the present methods of grading with protein tests to prevent contamination of Canadian grain passing through the United States to European markets, and to methods of preserving the identity of shipments down the lakes, were discussed by the Royal Grain Inquiry Commission here.

It was forecast by Isaac Plibido, K.C., representing the elevator interests, that there would be no particular objection to the introduction of protein tests for the benefit of those producers who desire what value attaches to that, though he brought out at much length the physical difficulties that obviously attach to supplementing the present system with that plan.

Chairman Turgeon pointed out, however, that many of the physical difficulties suggested in the way of the necessity for increased binning facilities where the protein test is largely used, would not be so great if it were intended to be a substitute for the marketing of grain by grades.

Soviet Would Negotiate Loan

Want to Borrow the Sum of $750,000,000 From Great Britain

London.—Soviet Russia will strive, at the forthcoming Anglo-Russian conference to negotiate credits of £150,000,000, spread over three years, according to the Moscow correspondent of the Daily Express. The credits, according to the dispatch, must be divided in the proportion of 67 per cent. goods and 33 per cent. cash, Great Britain to advance £40,000,000 the first year, £50,000,000 the second, and £60,000,000 the third. Russia will be prepared to begin paying interest on the loan within two years.

"We emphasize that financial credits are absolutely necessary if the orders we are ready to place in England, during the next few years are to be given," Christian Rakovsky, Soviet Charge d'Affaires, is quoted as saying. "These credits are not for the 'Red' army, but are exclusively for economic reconstruction."

British Ambassador Presents Credentials

Cordial Relations Between Great Britain and United States Are Referred to

Washington.—King George sees in the good understanding between Great Britain and the United States "the best guarantee for the future peace of the world."

This declaration was made to President Coolidge, at the request of the King, by Sir Esme Howard, and marked the presentation of the new ambassador's credentials to the United States chief executive.

Replying to the ambassador's statement, President Coolidge asserted that the conscious identity of general aims existing between the United States and the British Government "will be a mighty force in bringing to the world just and lasting peace."

Favors Equal Rights

Ottawa.—J. T. Shaw, member for West Calgary, intends to press this session for legislation to place the wife on an equality with the husband as regards grounds for divorce.

Alaska has been found to have rich deposits of almost every useful mineral.

TARIFF CHANGES CONSIDERED TO BE INEVITABLE

Ottawa.—When the budget speech is delivered this year, and signs point to it being earlier than usual, changes in the tariff are accepted as inevitable. No wide list will be covered, but something is certain to be done in regard to agricultural implements. Some of them may be placed on the free list, and where this is not done the duty will be cut. A plan is in process of being worked out which, it is claimed, will not be wholly unsatisfactory to the manufacturers, while calculated to please the Progressive elements. Raw products which enter into the manufacture of implements affected by the tariff changes will be admitted free while the sales tax will also be abolished in respect to the finished article. The desirability of the latter scheme was supported by Mr. Forke in a recent speech.

While it has been suggested that the tariff also be changed in regard to the necessities of life, it is doubtful if this session much on that line is attempted.

The sales tax is likely to be altered considerably in detail, if not in principle. From a great variety of suggestions no particular one has been determined upon. That the income tax will be changed this year is questionable.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, and the foot callouses, without soreness or irritation.

New Flag For Egypt

Egypt has formally adopted a new flag. It will be a green field with a crescent and three stars.

MRS. LIZZIE ALMAS

HERE IS THE REASON WHY CANADA HAS SO MANY HEALTHY WOMEN!

Toronto, Ont.—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can be relied upon as a woman's medicine. I found it so very beneficial that I do hesitate to recommend it to others who suffer. I had suffered with a severe nervous breakdown, caused thru my having feminine weakness. I had no control whatever over my nerves, could not sleep and I suffered with backaches and pains extending down into my limbs. I also had severe bearing-down pains. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It put me right on my feet and removed all the trouble. My nerves became strong and I did not suffer for any more with any of the above ailments.—Mrs. Lizzie Almas, No. 235 Ontario Street.

All druggists. Liquid or tablets. Write Doctor Pierce's Invalids Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice, or send 10c for trial pkg. of tablets to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2nd, 1924

A wrong impression seems to have gone out on the action taken by the business men and others in reference to the government liquor vendors store in Didsbury. Perhaps this was because the petitions which were circulated were a little indefinite. There was no desire expressed to have this store placed here providing that one was not located in either of the towns to the north or south of Didsbury. If this was to be the case then it was felt that Didsbury for its own sake in a great many ways, and for various reasons, should have the store. It is well known that our neighboring towns were making efforts to secure this store, one had taken action before it was taken here. As for encouraging the drink habit because the store was placed here it should be easily understood that that will have very little bearing, for one thing if the store is placed at either of the neighboring towns it will be an easy matter for those in this district who want the liquor to get it; bootlegging is likely to be another ev'. The conditions under the new law will be quite different to the old system of the liquor business. It will be absolutely under government control and only by permit will any person be able to secure hard liquor.

NOTICE

Arrangements have been made with Mr. H. W. Chambers, Didsbury, and Mr. M. R. Maybank, Olds, whereby the ratepayers of the Municipal District of Westdale may procure at half price, strichnine or gopher poison, for the purpose of destroying gophers on lands within M. D. 311
2013 A. McNaughton, Secy-Treas.

Here and There

Although the Canadian Pacific Railway has yet issued no forecast of construction contemplated for 1924, the fact that it has ordered 50,000 tons of steel from the Algoma Steel Company, of Sault Ste. Marie, seems to indicate that its program will be extensive.

According to a statement recently made by the Hon. Charles McCrea, Minister of Mines for the Province of Ontario, 85 per cent of the world's nickel supply is being taken out in the vicinity of Sudbury, where there is an inexhaustible supply of this metal.

Alberta's butter production last year was 18,500,000 pounds, or 2,000,000 pounds more than in 1922, according to reports presented at the annual meeting of the Alberta Dairymen's Association. It was not so long ago that Alberta was using butter imported from New Zealand.

The year 1923 was a favorable one in the building and construction activities of Canada, and returns show an advance of about 10 per cent. In 1922 the total expenditures in this regard were $315,000,000, and in 1923 $345,000,000, an increase of $30,000,000.

Exports of pulpwood from Canada for the year 1923 amounted to 1,384,230 cords, compared with 1,011,332 for 1922, an increase of 372,898 cords or 35 per cent. The 1923 figures are equivalent to about 900,000 tons of newsprint, the amount which can be manufactured from that amount of wood.

C. E. E. Ussher, General Passenger Traffic Manager, and E. J. Hebert, First Assistant General Passenger Agent, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, have been presented with medals by the French Government, in recognition of their services to the French Exhibition train in Canada in 1921. The medals take the form of tablets on small stands.

Attention has been drawn once more by airship experts in London, England, to the fact that the only known supply of helium gas in the British Empire exists in the Province of Alberta, that 10,000,000 feet of this gas is going to waste annually in this province and that the possibility of establishing an airship base at some future date in Alberta is being discussed.

CHAPTER I.

There are Islands on the prairies. Such an Island it is that rises out of the broad expansive sea of level, unbroken, green prairies that form the south-east section of the country, called—at the time of this narrative—"The North West Territories" of Canada, now Saskatchewan.

The "Moose Mountains"—a common name applied to one of nature's favored beauty spots—consist of an irregular cluster of undulating hills of glacial drift, which comprise an area of about six hundred square miles of territory. Rising to a height of from four to six hundred feet they form a conspicuous elevation that is visible for many miles along the lower lying surrounding level prairies. Within their beautiful well-wooded valley, and between their numerous equally well-wooded hills, lie scores of fresh water lakes, many of which are teeming with fish of various kinds. These, also, are the haunts of myriads of wild water fowl, and other birds of many species, that makes them their habitat during the breeding season of the year. Within these scenes was enacted the drama of human interest that is related in the following narrative.

It was coming to the close of a hot bright day toward the latter end of June, in the summer of 1885, when a solitary rider, well mounted on a roan broncho, drew rein and halted his fagged steed on the peak of one of the highest hills that form the south-west projection of the mountains. From his elevation the rider commanded a wide view of the apparently boundless prairies, which seemed to lose themselves in a smokey haze as they gradually blended with the blue of the horizon, and thus vanished beyond his range of vision. The field glasses that he trained on the seemingly limitless plain, revealed no break nor object that would indicate human habitation. With a puzzled look he turned his glasses eastward along the range of hills. After a close inspection of the skyline, he detected against the deeper blue of the eastern sky a faint tissue film of smoke that seemed to be issuing from, or beyond, a fringe of trees visible along the edge of a transverse range of hills some distance away. With a relieved expression depicted on his countenance he turned his horse in the direction indicated by this column of smoke and proceeded on his journey.

While the place from which this smoke issued might not prove to be the location of the Indian Agency, which was his objective as the end of his first day's trip, he inferred that it indicated the vicinity of some human habitation where he might receive accommodation for the night, or get some information as would direct him to the agency. It was his purpose, when he left Fort Qu'Appelle that morning to rest his horse for day at the Indian Agency, and there, also, secure additional supplies to last him for the balance of his journey to North Dakota, for which country he was heading, and where he had intended to join some of his people who had made their homes there.

As he approached the bluff, he followed a dim trail that led for some distance along its edge, which finally brought him through an opening in the trees. As he emerged on the other side of the bluff, his horse came to a sudden stop, when he almost collided with another horse and rider cantering towards him. Quickly recovering himself from the surprise of this sudden meeting, he checked up his horse and faced the new arrival with alert composure. That the surprise was mutual was evident from the attitude of the new arrival, who sat firmly in his saddle, bridle rein in the left hand, while the right tightly gripped a Colt's revolver. Still leaving it slung in the holster suspended from a belt around the waist, the stranger, without speaking, intently watched the movements of the traveller. He, in turn, appraised the youthful rider in front of him, who, sitting astride a spirited mount held well in hand, was, as he surmised, a youth of about eighteen years of age. He was dressed in riding boots and breeches, above which he wore an Indian tanned buckskin jacket, frilled and beaded as such garments usually are. On his head a gray stouch hat, pulled well over the face, fairly well concealed the upper part of a youthful and pleasing countenance.

The strained silence that followed this sudden meeting, during which both riders mutually regarded each other, was, after a few moments, broken by a sweet feminine voice that both thrilled and astonished the traveller as it asked: "Excuse me, sir, but did you notice a bunch of horses along the trail as you came along? Horse rustlers are reported to be ranging the country and father is anxious to have his horses rounded up for the night. I have ranged the hills around here, but have found no trace of them." As those words were spoken, the right hand that gripped the revolver was automatically transferred from its butt to the bridle rein.

Both astonished and embarrassed at this unexpected meeting on a lonely trail with a young lady rider, dressed in male attire, he mumbled an awkward apology and replied: "Oh, I beg your pardon, madame; there are no horses to be seen anywhere on the open country to the west, nor in any other direction so far as I could see, even with the aid of my field glasses." Then he offered: "If there is anything I can do to assist you in the search for them, I shall be pleased to do it."

"Oh, thank you," she said, "but I think I would rather not. I shall turn back and range those hills to the south, and if they are not there I shall follow the trail from there home, and report my failure to find them to father." Then reining her horse in the direction indicated, she turned in her saddle as if to give a parting greeting to the astonished traveller. As she did so, she seemed to notice for the first time the fagged and tired appearance of both horse and rider. She then turned her horse around and said: "Your horse seems tired. You must have travelled a long distance today."

"I started from Fort Qu'Appelle this morning. My name is MacRae, Ronald MacRae. I have just received my discharge from the Canadian army, with which I had been serving as scout with the General Middleton Brigade in the Riel Rebellion. I am on my way to North Dakota, where some of my people live. I was heading for the Moose Mountain Indian Agency, where I intended to spend the night and get additional supplies to continue the trip, but it seems I missed the trail. If you can direct me there I shall feel grateful."

"There is a trail leading to the agency from my home. Follow this trail and it will lead you to the house about two miles east of here. From there father will show you the trail to the agency." With this parting instruction she turned her horse, and, waiving him a parting greeting, she set spurs to her horse's flanks and galloped off in the direction of the hills to the south to resume her search for the horses.

For a few minutes he stood watching her as she cantered over the rolling ground till she dropped out of sight half a mile away beyond the brow of a hill. Her graceful riding, her skill in handling her horse, as well as her ingenuous manner, attracted both his fancy and admiration. For some time he stood hesitating and undecided as to which course to follow. He was seized with a strong urge to press his assistance. The fact that "horse rustlers" were reported to be in the vicinity made him apprehensive of the dangers that might be lurking in the shelter of any bluff. He knew the desperate character and criminal tendencies of such outlaws, and was accordingly conscious of the dangers that threatened a defenseless woman, ranging the country alone, when such bandits are roaming at large. He felt the urgency of following her to afford her protection in case of need. Finally, impressed by her refusal to accept his assistance and satisfied with her skill in horsemanship, as well as her independent self-assurance in her knowledge of the country, he decided to follow the trail leading to the house.

Travelling leisurely along the trail, he, in a short time, came to the shore of a lake of clear water with well defined shore line and sandy beaches. The land and surrounding hills were heavily wooded. He turned to his left and took a well beaten trail that followed the windings of the lake shore. Following this trail a short distance he came to a comparatively pretentious house built of peeled logs, and set on a stretch of rising ground a short distance back from the lake of which it commanded a clear view. The ground in front was cleared of all underbrush and fixed up as a grassy lawn. A few shade trees of birches and poplars stood here and there on the lawn in their irregular positions of original growth in the forest. The rustic log dwelling had a verandah extending the full length of its front. It was built so as to harmonize with the rusticity of the house itself, both of which were evidently built with a view to comfort and hominess, and much skill and good taste were shown in their construction. These details were taken in by the rider as he followed the path leading to the front of the house.

Canadian Bacon Shows Improvement

A cablegram received in Canada quotes a large firm of importers of livestock products in England as saying that Canadian bacon recently received has been of greatly improved quality. This firm attributes the improvement to the system of government grading of hogs. The same firm also states that recent consignments of butter from Western Canada have earned commendation from British purchasers.

HERE'S WHAT PEOPLE SAY ABOUT TANLAC

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick, discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good," says Mrs. Edward Gibbs.

All the advertising in the world gained 29 lbs., and today am feeling fine."

O. E. Moore, Kansas City, Mo.: "My stomach seemed to pain me constantly, food seemed to do me no good, I would bloat up with gas, lost my strength, and could not sleep or rest. I was on the down-grade all the time. Tanlac corrected my troubles and put me in excellent shape."

Thomas Lucas, Peterboro, Ontario: "Well, sir, buying TANLAC was the best investment I ever made, for it built up my health and strength to where I haven't a complaint in the world."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Kaake, Detroit, Mich.: "For more than a year our three children, ages 2, 4 and 6, had been so peaked and lifeless that we were worried about them. Their stomachs were upset, appetites poor, the color had left their cheeks, their nights were restless and during the day they would just mope around, taking no interest in play or anything else. They began to improve with the first dose of TANLAC, and today there are no more healthy children in Detroit."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 40 million bottles sold. Accept no substitute.

A Word of Encouragement

The Faithful Worker Is Not a Spectacular Person, and Misses the Applause

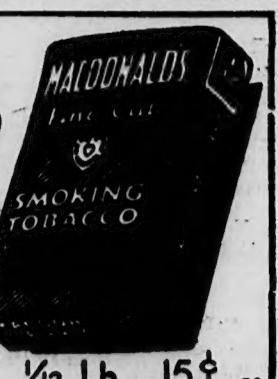

Isn't there a need, not often enough met, of a word of encouragement now and then to the person who is trying to do the right thing? One day a busy mother, tired with the unending turns for her small children, complained that she never seemed to get anything done and that her life was counting for little. "Why," said a friend, "if you don't do anything but keep these children well clothed and fed you are doing a big and worthy work." To which the mother replied: "I only wish somebody said that to me every day." The steady, faithful worker is not a spectacular person and his role is not the kind the galleries applaud. But he is the person who is maintaining the balance of the world. And he ought to be noticed now and then, lest he falter before his act is played out.—The Kansas City Star.

This, the largest and most powerful radio station operating in the Dominion, was opened by Sir Henry Thornton, K.B.E., chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, who spoke to employees and the general public of Canada and the States. At the same time CKCH was "tied in" with CHCY at Montreal and the speech and programme were broadcast from both cities simultaneously.

RHEUMATIC PEOPLE CAN FIND RELIEF

By Enriching Their Blood With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Rheumatism attacks people when the blood is clogged with impurities, thus setting up an inflammation of the muscles and joints. Cold or wet weather may start the tortures of rheumatism, but it is not the cause, as was once supposed. The cause is thin or impure blood. Rubbing with liniments or applying hot applications may give relief, but that is all; the pains are soon back again. You must treat the trouble through the blood to get rid of it. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is proved by the following statement. Miss Margaret M. Cullen, writing on behalf of her grandmother, Mrs. A. McEwen, Ormskirk, Que., says:—"My grandmother, now 85 years of age, was, some years ago, a great sufferer from rheumatism. She tried many remedies, but found none that did her any good until she began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These she used for some months until every trace of rheumatism disappeared. Since then she has taken the pills at intervals, and they have kept her in the best of health. It is marvellous how well and active my grandmother is. She cooked the dinner for the threshers last fall, and she gives the credit for her good health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She is anxious that her experience with this splendid medicine be given for the benefit of others."

If you are suffering from any trouble due to poor or watery blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help you. Sold by medicine dealers everywhere, or sent by mail at 50 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Best Fish Season

A greatly increased demand for unfrozen fish from Lake Manitoba is reported for this season by Canadian National Express officials. Since the opening of the season, Dec. 1, shipments to Montreal, Boston and New York have surpassed the records of previous years and the supply of fresh fish from Lake Manitoba for these points does not at present meet the demand.

A Power of Its Own.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has a subtle power of its own. All who have used it know this and keep it by them as the most valuable liniment available. Its uses are innumerable and for many years it has been prized as the leading liniment for man and beast.

A barometer in common use in some parts of Europe consists of a pan of water and a frog and a little step-ladder in it. When the frog comes out of the water and sits on the steps it is said infallibly to indicate rain.

Assists Farmers to Purchase, Livestock

New Policy Being Carried Out By Livestock Branch

The Minister of Agriculture for Canada, Honorable W. R. Motherwell, by the carrying out of policies administered by the Livestock Branch of his department, has, during the past fiscal year, either for breeding or feeding, been able to conserve a large number of livestock consigned to stockyards and abattoirs. Unfinished steers to the number of 80,717, 89,024 heifers, 673 sows and 48,000 sheep were, under the arrangement referred to, returned to the farms for breeding purposes in the case of females and for finishing into good beef in the case of feeder cattle. Two policies are involved in this service, one, the remission of freight charges, brought about by an arrangement between the Livestock Branch and the railway companies, and the other, the payment of the reasonable travelling expenses of farmers making the purchases. The minister's report, which supplies this information, makes it clear that the assistance thus given was available for stock purchased for breeding or further feeding by the purchaser and not for speculative purposes.

National Parks

National parks are not mere pleasure resorts. They pay national dividends of such magnitude that they cannot be overlooked, but the human dividends they pay in the form of renewed and increased health, efficiency and power, physical, mental and even moral, are of much greater moment. Recreation amid scenes of incomparable grandeur will do more to revive a lagging pulse and a sick mind than any physician's prescription—and the first to admit that is the doctor himself.—Vancouver Province.

Internally and Externally it is Good. The crowning property of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is that it can be used internally for many complaints as well as externally. For sore throat, croup, whooping cough, pains in the chest, colic and many kindred ailments it has qualities that are unsurpassed. A bottle of it costs little and there is no loss in always having it at hand.

Dead Letters

The following bulletin has been issued by the Post Office Department:

Over 2,000,000 undeliverable articles go to the dead letter office every year. Many of these articles would never reach the dead letter office if reasonable care was taken in the addressing of them. Moreover, in the majority of cases the senders fail to put their name and address on the outside of the letters and parcels which means that the articles have to be opened for examination and many times there is no indication of the senders' name and address, so that the articles have to be sold. Therefore, see that your name and address are on the outside of any article that you send in order that if it is undeliverable it may be returned to you promptly and unopened.

In regards to the above notice we might state that the printing of your stationery is not only the most neat but the most business like way to overcome these accidents and the Pioneer Office can supply you with such at a reasonable figure. Rubber stamps are sometimes used but a comparison between the stamped and printed will instantly convince you of the superiority of the printed stationery.

Mitchell Cup Contests

Considerable activity has been displayed during the past week in regards to the Mitchell Cup. Owing to lack of space we are unable to give the names of all the players competing in these games.

Last Thursday Olds once more came down and after one of the hardest fought games for the Cup yet played were defeated. Crossfield were the next challengers and played here on Monday night. After a good game however the local boys won out. Tuesday night came Innissfall and the coldest ice of the year. Notwithstanding the mere fact of water on the ice the game was merrily played off though with the result that the Didsbury rinks were defeated and the Cup went back with the Innissfall boys.

The curling for this season is about at an end now and as far as
